Wittering Weekly Roundup

We have had another busy week, with Parents Evenings, SOKE trips, RockSteady Concert, Class Assemblies and JumpStart Jonny visiting.

Wittering Primary School 150 Year Anniversary!

On Friday 17th April, we will be celebrating the 150 year anniversary of Wittering Primary School.

We would love for our children to come into school dressed 'Through the Ages'. This can be clothing styles from the Victorian era up to present day.

At 9am the children will be having a visit from numerous past teachers and pupils of Wittering. There will be an assembly where we learn more about the history of the school. Our visitors will then head to classrooms to talk about their memories of the school.

At lunch, funded by Friends of Wittering, we will be having a party lunch!

Families Centre

In the Families Centre this week they have celebrated St Patrick's Day with a themed stay and play session.

They are also very much looking forward to the Ark Farm visit next week.

Sports Events

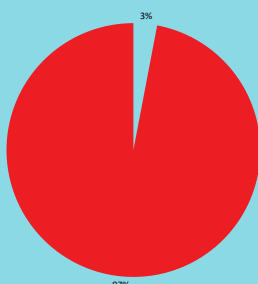

Children from Year 5 and 6 took part in a SOKE Netball event at AMVC this afternoon. They truly did amazingly well!

Throughout the event, the children displayed excellent teamwork and sportsmanship, making us all so proud. It was wonderful to see them collaborate and support each other on the court.

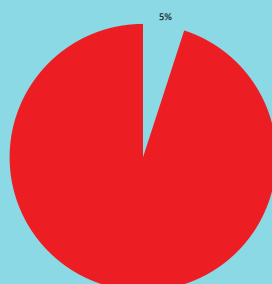

Weekly Attendance

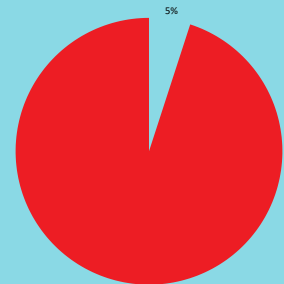

Our attendance across school this week is 92%. The top three year groups for attendance this week were:

Year 5

Year 3

Year 6

School Enrichment

We are thrilled to share that we had an absolutely amazing day with JumpStart Jonny here at school. The children were ecstatic to see him, and the energy and the atmosphere was simply incredible!

All the children and staff thoroughly enjoyed singing and dancing with him, creating amazing memories that we will cherish. It's moments like these that truly bring joy and excitement to our school community.

A massive thank you to JumpStart Jonny for coming in! WHOOOPA!!

Community News

Isla from Year 4 will soon be cutting her hair, and donating it to the Little Princess Trust and is raising money for this amazing charity.
